PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern the AKSRT in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are consistent with these bylaws.

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENTS

These bylaws may be amended, revised or repealed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members voting at the annual meeting. Notice of Bylaw amendments shall be provided to the membership at least thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting. Such amendments shall become effective immediately following the annual meeting.
ARTICLE XII
INDEMNIFICATION

To the greatest extent of the laws of Alaska, every officer, director, employee, or delegate of the Society shall be indemnified by the Society against all expenses and liabilities, including attorneys’ fees, in connection with any threatened, pending or completed proceeding in which the above-named individual is involved by reason of the above-named individual being or having been an officer, director, employee, or delegate of the Society if the above-named individual acted in good faith and within the scope of the above-named individual’s authority and in a manner reasonably believed to be not opposed to the best interest of the Society. In no event shall indemnification be paid to or on behalf of any above-named individual going beyond or acting beyond the powers granted by authority of this organization or bylaw. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, all other rights to which such officer, director, employee or delegate may be entitled.

ARTICLE XIII
DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution or final liquidation of the Society, all of its assets remaining, after payment of its obligations shall have been made or provided for, shall be distributed to and among such corporations, foundations, or other organizations organized and operated exclusively for the scientific and educational purposes, consistent with those of this Society, as designated by the Board of Directors.
